

Our Money, Our Rights Seminar

10 April 2010 (Saturday) ● 9am - 1pm
HDB Hub Convention Centre (Auditorium)

The Consumers Association of Singapore and MoneySENSE invite you to a FREE educational seminar on: "Our Money, Our Rights"

Are you seeking answers on how to go about planning for your family's financial future? Do you want to know more about issues on mortgage loans for that first home that you are thinking of buying? If you are interested to learn more about these practical financial matters for the future of your family, this educational seminar is for you!

We believe that, armed with the necessary knowledge and tools, consumers can make important financial decisions for the future of their family.

Who should attend?

- All those who are interested to know more about financial planning matters for their family
- All those who want to learn how to make better financial decisions
- Couples who are about to get married and about to make that first home purchase decision
- Those who have questions regarding issues on mortgage loans and how to do effective financial planning

Interested to learn more?

Sign up for the seminar for OUR MONEY, OUR RIGHTS

Topics include:

- Are you making effective financial decisions?
- Making sense of mortgage loans
- Planning for your family's financial future

All talks will be conducted in English on 10 Apr 2010. Attendance is by registration on a first come, first served basis.

Register early for this free seminar! Seats are limited.

All participants receive an attractive goodie bag and door gift. Refreshments are included as well!

To register, please call 64611842 / 62360516 or email to marketing@case.org.sg and state your name, NRIC number and contact number.

Please make copies for additional registration

LIMITED CAPACITY!

Presented by:

Supported by:

Managed by:

