MoneySENSE is a national financial education programme launched by the Singapore Government in October 2003. MoneySENSE provides information to help Singaporeans manage their finances better and plan for their financial well-being.

For more tips and information, visit www.moneysense.gov.sg

So come with your family and friends to the first MoneySENSE Roadshow at HDB Hub. For the first 500 visitors to the Roadshow each day, you will receive a mystery gift (based on a first come first serve basis and while stocks last). You will definitely have fun and pick up a skill or two about money management. It's all happening at the HDB Hub, Toa Payoh on 31 Mar - 2 Apr 2006. See you there!

MoneySENSE Games:

Take part in a series of fun-filled games, and learn tips on how to make informed financial decisions. You will be given some MoneySENSE $$ to start with. Play the games, multiply your MoneySENSE $$, and you stand a chance to win attractive prizes!

MoneySENSE Supermarket Contest:

Show off your shopping and budgeting skills by taking part in the MoneySENSE Supermarket Contest. Participants will compete to see who is the most MoneySENSible supermarket shopper. The aim is to make MoneySENSible shopping decisions, given a certain budget, time limit and shopping objectives. Register to take part in this exciting challenge at the MoneySENSE 2006 Roadshow.

MoneySENSE Seminar:

Sign up for a seminar to learn more about money management, insurance planning, financial planning and personal investing. For enquiry, please call 6236 5790. Registration of $10 per participant is required to confirm your attendance. This will include refreshments and a door gift.

The seminar will cover areas such as

- Are you making effective financial decisions?
- Understanding loans and avoiding the debt trap
- Making sense of health insurance
- Retirement with a purpose
- Making sense of investments

(Topics subject to changes.)
